Professional Development

Conferences / In-Service Days / Staff Training

Create a buzz at your next conference, staff training, or in-service day that people will be thinking, talking, and tweeting about for weeks. Juggling and other skill toys make tangible the playful learning environment that you want to create. Remind your team why they come to work every day.

Conference/meeting fatigue

Informal networking

Opportunities to synthesize learning

Motivational Speaking: Memories of improvisational antics, relevant research, and interactive audience engagement will remain long after the last round of applause. Powerful messages about engaging in personal and professional growth, creating a culture of success, and focusing on well-being weave throughout the entire presentation.

Interactive Workshops: Engaging breakout sessions combine hands-on experiential learning with personal reflection to address themes such as teamwork, leadership, stress, and wellness. Dynamic, energizing, and impactful learning experiences customized for each client.

Invigoration Stations: Put down the phone and play! Laughter, spontaneous celebrations, and informal conversations are the perfect way to create an atmosphere of playful learning at your event.

Interactive and engaging keynote sessions that were spot-on for our audience.

Your professionalism, enthusiasm, and dedication helped make this event an overwhelming success, as measured through the evaluations.

Event Planner

Excellent job of engaging the audience. Even the most solemn and serious individuals were laughing and smiling.

Event Planner

Our conference attendees left our closing keynote refreshed and smiling!

Conference Planner

The most fun (most funnest? — that seems more descriptive!) workshop I've ever attended.

Conference Attendee

The exercise demonstrated the value of talking to one another and building on our strengths.

Conference Attendee

What a fun, invigorating way to get to know a group of people.

Founders

Paul Miller, Chief Executive Officer

An entrepreneur and nationally touring performing artist, Paul performs his unique blend of comedy magic, spectacular juggling, and contagious energy both nationally and internationally for Fortune 500 companies, USO, TEDx Creative Coast, Off-Broadway, and Disney Cruise Lines.

Dawn Daria, Chief Education Officer

An award winning educator and author, Dawn loves to inspire individuals to step out of their comfort zones in order to discover something new about themselves, each other, and the world. She regularly consults with organizations including Chamber of Commerce leadership programs, women business owner groups, museum education programs, and the health and wellness industry.

Loved the workshop; Dawn and Paul complement each other's strengths in the best of ways.
